The school is inspired by Christian values such as respect, fair play and equality for people of every class, religion and gender and seeks to promote and hand on these values in the daily running of the school.

The school will endeavour to enhance the self-esteem of everyone in the school community, to imbue in the pupils respect for people and property and to encourage in them the idea of being responsible.

The school will encourage the involvement of parents through home/school contacts and through their involvement in the Parents' Association.

The school will strive to promote, both individually and collectively, the professional and personal development of teachers through staff development programmes.

Scoil Mhuire, Davidstown seeks to develop the full personality of the pupils. The school presents a broad and comprehensive curriculum, in line with the guidelines presented by the Department of Education
